FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

*Bossa nova infused with jazz and samba by world-renowned Brazilian vocalist and guitarist
Saturday in Pinecrest Gardens*

Pinecrest, Fla. – Latin Grammy nominated Rose Max and Ramatis Moraes will be performing a special tribute to the works of Juan Carlos Jobim as part of the South Motors Jazz Series in Pinecrest Gardens, 11000 Red Road, at 8 p.m. Saturday December 14.

Rose Max and Ramatis may come from Rio de Janeiro: the land of bossa nova. But their music is also infused with the rich influences of samba, jazz, and world music. They have performed professionally for many years in Rio, the US, Europe, and South America and have risen to become highly recognized in Brazilian, Spanish and American communities.

Rose is a direct descendant of the great conductor Cupertino de Menezes, and guitarist Manuel de Menezes – both legends in early Brazilian music. In 2009 Rose Max became a six-time winner of the International Brazilian Press Award for the “Best Female Brazilian Singer Residing and Performing in the USA”.

Ramatis began classical guitar studies at the age of seven and was performing professionally by age 12. He has performed with some of the biggest names in Brazilian popular music and has been awarded the International Brazilian Press Award for the “Best Musical Producer of the Year” and “Best Musician Residing and Performing in the USA”. He is also a successful songwriter, producer and arranger, currently signed to Warner Chappell Publishing.

Gates open at 6:30 p.m. for light fare in the Pinecrest Gardens’ courtyard and gallery. Tickets prices start at just $20 and are available at www.pinecrestgardens.org or by calling 1-877-496-8499.

Artists are available for interviews the day of the show. Picture attached.
