FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bunnies, egg hunts and family fun sprung up in Pinecrest Gardens' Eggstravaganza

Pinecrest, Fla. – One of Pinecrest Gardens signature events, Eggstravaganza, went off with a hitch on a recent Saturday. Thousands attended the event to participate in Easter egg hunts and capture memorable moments of their children with the Easter Bunny and while enjoying activities and crafts.

Toddlers (1 to 3 years), boppers (4 to 6 years) and tweens (7 to 10 years) participated in hunts every half hour throughout the Gardens. And a cast of cute and cuddly characters that included a Spring Bunny posed for pictures with families along the winding paths of the botanical garden.

The day was tailored for children and those young at heart with arts and crafts, interactive games, story time, magic shows, face painting and balloon art.

About Pinecrest Gardens

Pinecrest Gardens attracts over 150,000 visitors each year and was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in October 2011, making it historically significant on a local, state and national platform. It is a premier venue for the arts, education and environmental conservation and preservation. On any given day one can catch an arts performance, tour the 14 acres of native forested wetland, tropical hardwood hammock and native cypress slough hammock or take a class in horticulture, archeology and botany.
