FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pinecrest Gardens to host Palm Beach Shakespeare Festival this weekend

Pinecrest, Fla. – The Palm Beach Shakespeare Festival will set up shop in Pinecrest Gardens this weekend. A Midsummer Night’s Dream, Shakespeare’s joyous comedy about the universal theme of love and its complications: lust, disappointment, confusion, marriage will take center stage January 23rd through January 25th.

The play brilliantly conjoins four intertwined stories: the marriage of the Athenian Duke Theseus to the Amazon queen Hippolyta; the warring Oberon and Titania, king and queen of the fairies; the madcap follies of four lovers in a forest; and the comically earnest efforts of a group of working men to stage a love-play for the royal wedding. As the working men press faithfully on with their rehearsals, the otherworldly night of confusion, passion and diligence proves oddly momentous, touching every life to the quick. The Banyan Bowl stage will breathe with the miraculous charms and powerful illusions of love.

Newsday has said that it is “deliriously beautiful, deeply magical”

Performance dates and times are as follow: Friday, January 23 at 8:00 p.m., Saturday, January 24 at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, January 25 at 7:00 p.m. Tickets are $20 for adults, $15 for seniors and $10 for students.
