The goal of Bike Ride Day is to encourage student and family participation in activities geared toward healthy and active lifestyles. The event commenced with a Safety and Information Fair with a Bicycle Rodeo where children rode through an obstacle course that taught them about bicycle safety. Sponsors also fitted and gave away bicycle helmets and safety equipment.

Participants had their choice of a two, three or four-mile loops where bicyclists rode through Pinecrest's scenic streets while flanked by police personnel to ensure safety. The fun continued after the ride when sponsors raffled gym memberships, major league sports tickets and other family-friendly items.

The event was held from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on Saturday, March 14th outside of the Pinecrest Community Center.
